

Ritchie and Cross May Battle on Coast

RITCHIE AND CROSS TO MEET ON COAST

Opinion General They'll Clash for Twenty Rounds About on New Year's Day.

CHAMPION HIGHLY PRAISED

Boxing Commission Says Jess Willard Can't Box Carl Morris in Garden.

A live topic among all classes of sportsmen yesterday was the sensational fight between Willie Ritchie, light-weight champion of the world, and Louie Cross in the Garden. Monday night, Ritchie's victory was well received, for the reason that he disproved the reports that he wasn't a really first class lightweight. While Cross was generally commended for his gameness and person, particularly to overcome the California champion, he was not held in high esteem by many of the oldest followers of the ring game.

Wherever the fight was discussed Ritchie came in for compliments because of his splendid gameness and powerful punch. It was conceded that if Cross had been in perfect physical condition he never would have been able to survive the two knockdowns in the third round. Ritchie's right hand, which reached Cross' jaw in that session, was delivered with wonderful accuracy and also with surprising power, considering the short distance the champion's fist traveled. Cross' gameness, which reached its peak in the third round, was also commended for his gameness and person, particularly to overcome the California champion, he was not held in high esteem by many of the oldest followers of the ring game.

It was rumored yesterday that Ritchie, after coming out last night, he had decided to fight on New Year's day, so that another battle with Cross could be arranged in California. It was stated that if Cross would go direct to California to box the champion on Thanksgiving Day and that if he won he would sign articles to fight Ritchie also at Vernon on New Year's Day. Ritchie will leave here tomorrow for San Francisco, where he is booked to fight twenty rounds with Harrison Tommy Murphy on December 2. In view of Murphy's post, it is probable that Ritchie will not fight Cross on the form he displayed against Cross, should win without extending himself. It is even thought that he would find it worth while to meet Cross again in a longer battle.

Persons who were next to the true state of affairs, however, declared that Ritchie tried to knock Cross out in the last seven rounds, but that Cross proved too tough and too dangerous. Cross carried a deadly wallon right up to the end of the scrap and nobody knew better than the champion. It was Ritchie's alertness in stepping back, in ducking or in blocking that made it impossible for Cross to reach the point of the blow. Ritchie will leave here tomorrow to put the Californian down. Ritchie received many right handers on the side of the head, in the neck or flush in the face, but he was not much staggered. He took all that Cross had and then outboxed him.

The fight drew nearly $22,000. Of this sum Ritchie had the alternative of $2,000, or a $10,000 guarantee, it is said, and naturally he took the latter. The State received $1,100, and the garden got $1,500 in rent. After printing, advertising and help had been paid for, together with settling up with the minor fighters, it was figured yesterday that the garden, A. C., which put on the battle, netted not much more than $2,000.

It is doubtful if Ritchie comes back to California until after the first of January unless Manager Gibson can arrange a match for him in the Garden after the six day bicycle race in December. Manager Gibson had a talk with Ritchie yesterday, but nothing was decided. Ritchie in a bout with Freddie Welsh, the British champion, would draw perhaps a bigger gate than was the battle with Cross, said yesterday that Willie showed much improvement over his work against Rivers on the Coast last July.

Although Jess Willard has accepted the Garden A. C.'s terms to box Carl Morris here on December 2, the boxing commission, however, has decided that Willard will not fight Morris. It was shown that Willard was suspended last winter by the commission because he failed to keep an engagement with Round Davis in Buffalo. Willard left the state and has remained away ever since. If the boxing unions keep Willard under the ban Dan Bailey of Pittsburgh will meet Morris on the above date.

Tommy Teague, who claims the middle-weight championship of the United States Navy, meets Freddie Hicks in the main event of ten rounds at the Irving Athletic Club Saturday night. Thanksgiving afternoon Jack Britton will box Mike Glover, and K. O. Brown is matched with Young Laiting.

DRIVE FROM TOP OF STRETCH

Charlestonian Outlasts Belmont's Star Youngster Stromboli.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—Charlestonian, a waltzhouse gelding belonging to J. W. Messers, and was ridden by McCahey, won the juvenile handicap this afternoon by a nose in a drive through the entire length of the stretch from August Belmont's Stromboli, the favorite, which carried the crushing weight of 124 pounds. Charlestonian was quick to get into his stride. McCahey kept him going at a clipping pace and he had something left to stall off the challenge of the Belmont youngster when the final test came. The Baltimorean won by a head.

First Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Second Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Third Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Fourth Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Fifth Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Sixth Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Seventh Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Eighth Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Ninth Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10. Tenth Race—Six furlongs—The Algon, 118 lbs., won by a head, 1:10.

Chinese Nine to Call Again. Peking, Mo., Nov. 11.—The baseball team of Chinese University at Honolulu, Hawaii, is planning another invasion of the United States next year. The management has written Westminster College of this city for two games and will be accompanied by the two teams played here last summer.

CORNELL TURNED INSIDE OUT.

Coach Sharpe Makes Seven Changes in Lineup, Aiming at Penn.

ITHACA, Nov. 11.—Radical changes in the lineup, involving the readjustment of seven places on the Cornell team, made today in the secret practice held on the Alston field, the biggest shakup of the Cornell varsity this year. Coach Sharpe is endeavoring to strengthen his team for the Pennsylvania game.

Rees and McChaffey, the ends were relegated to the second team, and Fritz, right halfback, and Shelton, fullback, were switched to right and left ends respectively. Fritz played end two years ago and Shelton was an end on the freshman squad last year before he played on the varsity.

Guyer and Williamson played left and right tackle and Hyland and Munns the guards. McCutcheon gets the center position and the center trio now average at least 187 pounds.

Barrett is shifted back to quarterback, the coaches having decided that Shuler is the man for the position. A very radical change is made at fullback, where Phillips and Mallory are sent in for Barrett and Fritz. Mallory has played tackle, Collier has played a sub halfback all year, while Phillips has been sub halfback in which the coaches picked them because of their weight and strength. Lahr, a heavier man than Shelton, replaces him at fullback.

This combination is a good deal heavier than the old and possesses more strength. N. Y. U. WANTS ONE VICTORY.

Has Its Last Chance at Home Next Saturday Against Wesleyan.

The New York University football squad has its first workout yesterday afternoon since the Syracuse game. The work of the team so far this season has been satisfactory, as the Violets eleven have not won a victory to date and next Saturday's game with Wesleyan is the last home contest and the team is determined to win the game at all costs. For the rest of the week all spectators will be kept off the field and secret practice as far as possible.

After the game last Saturday Coach High decided that some of the men were overtrained, so he has ordered Miller and Von Melenow, who play in the backfield, not to report for practice until tomorrow. In this way he hopes to put new life into the backfield, which has been New York's most vulnerable point for the entire season.

The work yesterday was very light. Brown of Yale handled the line men from tackle to tackle, while High coached the ends and backfield yesterday. The practice for the day concluded with a half hour scrimmage, in which the Violets lost the ball most of the time, but were unable to score.

Amherst Has Rough Day of It.

AMHERST, Mass., Nov. 11.—With a week left before the big time of the season against Williams, Amherst went through a hard week yesterday. The Violets eleven, the varsity battled against the freshmen in a grueling scrimmage. Coaches Hobbs and Ables gave the men no chance to rest up, but were behind the scenes, substituting for Meloy at fullback, hit the line hard on substantial gains. Hubbard kept up his good work at halfback. The game showed up well, but the defense seemed slowly to be acquiring the faculty of breaking up open plays such as those Williams is expected to use.

Virginia Is Heavy Favorite.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—That University of Virginia is the favorite to win the big annual football game with Georgia here next Saturday was demonstrated when $500 came to the local campus from Charlottesville to be bet on the Southern at odds of 10 to 5. Georgia's followers have not covered the money yet, demanding 2 to 1.

Joe Patchen II. at It Again.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Local harness horse enthusiasts say Joe Patchen II. is as good as even now, if he better than ever, after seeing the impressive pacing of the great speedster on the closing day of the Arizona State Fair meeting here. The leading state winner of 1912 made the 1913 start in the 2:04 pace, which he won after making a break and losing the first heat to Minnie Chimes. He paced the final heat in 2:04.

Ten Eyck-Yale Story Untrue.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 11.—Capt. Devereux of the Yale varsity team did not tonight that Yale was about to take to professional coaching with Ten Eyck of Syracuse as coach. A report was heard that Yale could try to get Courtlandt to coach. There will be a conference of the rowing committee next week, so Capt. Devereux said tonight.

WILL PIT GET OF DOG AGAINST ANY IN WORLD

John McGough Makes Challenge on Behalf of His Airedale Champion Gold Heels.

John McGough, breeder and owner of the American bred Airedale terrier Champion Gold Heels, called at The Sun office yesterday and said that he would like to match the set of dog against the set of any other Airedale terrier dog or two living Airedale terrier dogs in the world.

Mr. McGough's conditions are simple. "I am willing to match six or eight puppies under 12 months old and stired by my Airedale terrier Champion Gold Heels against the set of any one or two Airedales in the world. I will bid the match and post $500 with The Sun. I recognize that such a match would entail much expense to owners living abroad and I am agreeable to covering any money a reasonable extent that they may put up. The match must be decided in New York and by two judges mutually agreed upon by the parties to the match, and the referee must be chosen on the day of the proposed match by the two judges who have agreed to act."

LAFAYETTE WORKS ON SIGNALS.

New Combination Used in Line Owling to Injuries and Stickness.

EARSON, Pa., Nov. 11.—The preparation for the Cornell game was carried on strenuously on March Field today. Coach McCahey tried out some new ideas and hence confined the work to signals. Kelly also practiced his punts from behind the line of scrimmage.

The Lafayette line was a strictly new combination, due to injuries and sickness. Both the ends, both the tackles and the center failed to appear on the scene of action. Shilling and Pardee played the extremities. The elongated Gullick was moved from guard to tackle. The new tackle, also was played at tackle. The place vacated by Gullick was filled by Paul and Freeman played center. While the conditions are very disastrous to the preparation for the Cornell game, they are not alarming, for the Cornell players probably will be able to appear in their accustomed places when the whistle blows in Ithaca on Saturday.

Welsh Demands More Money.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11.—Manager Bishop of the local National A. C. has received a telegram from Harry Pollok, manager of Freddie Welsh, turning down an offer for a bout between Welsh and Packey McFarland. November 20 is the date that was named. Pollok's wire declared the terms were so small as to be out of the question. "I am not interested in a weight mentioned, 135 pounds," says Pollok, "and club will give Welsh sufficient guarantee will be glad to take match. Both would be glad to see Welsh in New York, so St. Louis would have to bid very high to get it."

Bonhag Just Can't Retire.

George Bonhag, the former distance champion, is taking a course of civil engineering at Columbia University. He daily takes 10 miles to the college buildings, do a little running and limbering up exercises on South Field and after dinner to attend his course in the university. Most champions upon retiring stop their athletic work too abruptly. Bonhag is wiser.

Tenney Wins Last Event.

The last event of the Columbia inter-class track meet was decided on South Field yesterday afternoon, when T. Tenney, 14, won the running broad jump with 20 feet 6 inches. Tenney, 13, was second, with 19 feet 10 inches, and N. Ward, 14, third, with 18 feet 4 inches. The seniors won the meet without the aid of yesterday's event, the juniors were second, the freshmen third and the sophomores fourth.

Jack Johnson Wine Bogus.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Although the line of its namesake did not come in for consideration the Department of Agriculture has ruled that Johnson's wine is colored artificially. The beverage was named for the negro boxer. The decision came in a case where wine shipped in interstate commerce from Newark, N. J., was seized.
